

To Whom It May Concern:

In regards to the Indiana No Call List. I am on the list for a reason. I do not want solicitation calls from ANYONE for ANY reason. This includes the companys that I do business with. One of the best ways to ensure that I won't do business with a company is for that company to call and disturb me at home. Compromising the Indiana No Call List will be very disapointing. If the No Call list is compromised in this way, I will include it as a reason to my telephone provider for my cancelation of thier service.
